Alfred W. Froebrich Elected Partner at Cohen Pontani Lieberman & Pavane LLP

(NEW YORK, NY) – Cohen Pontani Lieberman & Pavane LLP (CPLP), a preeminent specialist in intellectual property law, is pleased to announce that it has named Alfred (Fred) W. Froebrich as Partner.

Froebrich is recognized for his expertise in all aspects of U.S. and international patent prosecution as well as counseling concerning patent infringement, validity and patentability issues.

With a concentration in the prosecution of utility and design patent applications in the United States Patent and Trademark Office, he has extensive experience counseling clients in freedom to operate and patentability in the U.S. and overseas. He has counseled clients and prosecuted applications concerning electronic and optical communications devices, wireless communications devices and networks, electronic circuit design and devices, semiconductor devices, digital signal processing, controls for vehicle navigation devices, software, vehicle clutches and transmissions, and printing presses.

“Cohen Pontani Lieberman & Pavane’s domestic and global clients have long benefited from Fred’s significant legal and engineering expertise in their many industries,” says Managing Partner Martin B. Pavane. “His dedication to and hard work on behalf of this firm’s clients has made a substantial contribution to CPLP’s continued success and high standing in the global intellectual property arena.”

With a practice that is international in scope, Froebrich works with associates throughout the world to prosecute international and national patent applications in the United States and overseas.

“This is an exceptionally talented team,” Froebrich says. “And I am pleased to be a member. Clients benefit from the firm’s unique focus on IP litigation which impacts every aspect of my practice – from patent prosecution through opinion work and due diligence.”

Froebrich received his B.S. in Electrical Engineering from Manhattan College and his J.D. from Pace University School of Law. He is admitted to practice in New York and before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. He also is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

Cohen Pontani Lieberman & Pavane LLP (www.cplplaw.com) is an intellectual property firm serving a worldwide roster of companies from a diverse range of industries including avionics, pharmaceuticals, electronics, heavy machinery, biotechnology and telecommunications.

CPLP is unique in its focus on intellectual property litigation that infuses every aspect of its IP work in prosecution of patents, trademarks, and copyrights; in drafting opinions and licenses; and in due diligence and transaction work. It is CPLP's philosophy that no legal activity is so routine that it does not have the potential to become the weak link in IP protection, resulting in legal exposure or porous rights. Hence, the firm views all IP matters as potential litigations to be won or avoided and is positioned to provide world-class litigation services, as well as other highly skilled IP services to achieve wraparound IP protection at the highest level.
